The unusual mural from the Wallcoverings 1838 collection depicts large, expressive flowers, in shades of red and green. The painterly nature of this motif gives popular flowers an unusual twist. A mural ideal for lovers of simplicity with a touch of originality. The entire collection combines classics with modernity and excellent workmanship. There are large, marauding flowers, watercolour landscapes and expressive tropicals. The rich colours - reds, blues or greens - are further accentuated by the structure of the canvas.
