Product description:

We present to you a unique mural with the motif of an oncoming wave in a navy blue and white colour scheme. The design is kept in a Japanese climate and gives the impression of space. It will perfectly embellish both the living room and the bedroom. The product is made to order and the customer himself defines the size and frame of the print. The grey and white colour scheme offers great design possibilities. It is for lovers of modern, natural forms. There is the possibility of selecting the appropriate texture.
